13 (8) Probation and parole offices in the Serious Juvenile Offender Unit and senior probation offices employed
14 by the Division of Services for Children, Youth and their Families.

15 Section 4. This Act shall take effect on January 1, 2018."

SYNOPSIS

This Amendment clarifies that House Bill 363 of the 148th General Assembly was to enable all probation and parole officers including supervisors and director to retire without penalty after 25 years of service. This Amendment also places an effective date on the legislation of January 1, 2018.
